THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1874.

HOW TO GET PEANUTS FOR NOTHING.—Apropos of the interest felt in the cultivation of the peanut, Mr. Fuller suggests, with mild sarcasm, that "our commissioner of agriculture might be persuaded to purchase a few thousand bushels for distribution as choice seed among the people of the northern states where peanuts do not thrive. They would be far more likely to succeed here than the cork oaks distributed among the same localities and from the department of agriculture a few years since." All that is necessary is to write to Commissioner Watts, asking for a few pounds or bushels, as the case may be, and if he has none on hand, he will, no doubt, hasten to obtain them, because it would never do for the government seedsman to be out of peanuts. A few dozen letters, all asking for peanuts, would certainly be convincing proofs of the wants of the agricultural community. If a supply was furnished it would not be incumbent upon the receiver to plant them; for they are very palatable when well roasted. When the first lot has been disposed of, write for more, because the business of the department is to supply the people with free seeds, and as peanuts are seeds, why not add them to the list?"

THE PROPERTIES OF A GOOD HORSE.—About the year 1811, Julian Berners, sister of Richard Lord Berners, wrote three English tracts on hunting, hawking, and heraldry. From an edition of this book printed by Wynken de Worde, in 1496, I give the following extracts:—"The propyties of a good horse: A good horse sholde have fifteen good propyties and condycions; that is to wryte, three of a man, three of a woman, three of a foxe, three of a haare, and three of an asse. Of a man, boled, prowde, and hardye; of a woman, fayre breasted, fayre of heere, and easy to move; of a foxe, a fayre tayle, short eeres, with a good trotte; of a haare, a grete eye, a dry heed, and well renaying: of an asse, a bygge chyn, a flat legge, and a good hoof.—[Merrie England. Its Sports and Pastimes. By Lord W. Lennox.

JOKES AND CANDLES.—Charles Lamb would not allow any great antiquity for wit, and, apostrophizing candlelight, said: This is our peculiar and household planet: wanting it, what savage, unsocial nights must our ancestors have spent, wintering in caves and unilluminated fastness! They must have lain about and grumbled at one another in the dark. What repartees could have passed, when you must have felt about for a smile, and handled a neighbor's cheek to be sure he understood it. Jokes came in with the candles.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1874.

The summer routes of the NEWS are now carried. The paper is delivered east as far as Gibbs avenue and south as far as Webster street. The publishers will be pleased to serve all within these limits.

THE DAY.

An Assistant Secretary of the Treasury has been secured. It is Mr. Conant, chief of the warrant division, and long a member of the department.

Mr. Hale has concluded that he cannot endure a Summer in Washington and he has retracted his acceptance of the Postmaster Generalship. Senator Morrill of Vermont, and Judge Settle of North Carolina are mentioned as candidates for the vacant office.

It seems as if the present were a bad season of a bad year for a strike, but the men will do it. The printers in the employ of the Columbia Bank Note Company of Washington struck on Tuesday on account of a reduction in wages. The company secured all the workmen they needed at the reduced rates and then the old hands wanted to go to work again on the company's terms, but they were too late.

The adjournment of our legislature took the public by surprise, and several efforts have been made to discover hidden reasons and deep laid plots to account for it. The New York Evening Post discovered that the adjournment was a piece of Burnside strategy, the object of which was to prevent a union on some new man and to gain time for the general. The Rev. Augustus Woodbury has written a letter to the Post which effectually demolishes this pretty theory. He shows that the adjournment was proposed and carried by Burnside's opponents. Of the twenty-seven Burnside men in the house twenty-one voted against adjournment.

News comes to us from New York of an invention almost as important as that of the steam engine; whether it is all that it is claimed to be the future only can tell. It is announced that a machine has been invented that will make natural peat into a dry, hard fuel, looking like cannel coal, in half an hour. The valuable properties of peat have long been known, but its extensive use has been prevented by the difficulty of making it dry enough for ordinary use and hard enough to bear transportation and changes of the weather. This new machine, it is said, will take peat from the swamp and in thirty minutes turn it out in black cakes, almost perfectly free from water and hard enough to take a polish. This fuel is said, to possess greater heating properties than natural coal and to leave little ash and no slag, and to be adapted to domestic use and use in iron works, gas works and locomotives. It can be made at a handsome profit for $5 a ton. Peat is found in almost every state of the union and in many of the states and in the Canadas it is very abundant. If the advantages of this new process have not been exaggerated the invention will prove a benefaction to the world.

WHAT IS TAXATION?

To the Editor of the Daily News.

SIR:—When a discussion threatens to take so wide a range as is indicated by Sinbad's last letter it appears to me to be a good plan to pause and ask what are we talking about. I think few of your readers would believe at the outset of an argument in reference to taxing church property that it could degenerate into a discussion of the definition of infidelity, doctrinal religious questions the commune, whether Civis is "earnest and moral," whether he "leans to infidelity," whether he is "prejudiced," whether he "imagines" he has "intellectual superiority," or whether he is a "very self-confident person;" these charges coming too from one who is self-styled a "Statesman."

Now, Mr. Editor, what is the object of taxation? It is simply to enable the state to pay the expenses of protecting persons and property; in other words when we pay our taxes we are only paying a bill which the state presents to us for protection most of us pay the bill as willingly as we do the grocer's and if we reflect a minute we should pay it more willingly than any other bill for if every one claimed and executed a right to be exempt from it, no other bills could ever be collected. Will Sinbad state to your readers in what respect a bill presented to a church for protecting its property from fire, mobs, robbers, etc., differs in principle from one for the bricks and mortar of which it is built? I suppose he would hardly expect a poor watchman who is employed to prevent petty pilfering to give his services gratuitously; then why ask the state to do its work for nothing? Surely not because the state is composed of an aggregation of individuals, some rich and some poor, for if so then instead of buying the bricks and lumber from one person who sells such things, go to a large corporation, the stockholders of which are from all ranks and classes in life, and claim exemption from paying the bill because the object for which the goods were bought was a charitable and religious one. If the corporation or one of its members insisted that the bill should be paid, would it be a good defence to say that the church was being attacked, or that the person (or persons) who insisted on the payment "leaned to infidelity" or were "immoral" or "prejudiced," "not earnest," or "self confident," or made a "mistake in considering this a democratic form of government?"

I, as a member of the great corporation—the state of Rhode Island—demand of the church that it shall pay the debt it owes the state for protecting its property just as it pays its rector for his services, or the lumber dealer for his lumber, or the dealer in candles, incense &c. for his goods,—and I make this demand fully recognizing the great benefits which the church confers on society, believing with scores of Christians in this city including at least three orthodox clergymen that the cause of truth can never be benefitted by its upholders attempting to evade payment of honest debts.

CIVIS.

[The weather is very warm and it is hardly fair to expect the public to wrestle energetically with the problem of church taxation. It is a serious subject but not a Sirius subject, and dogmatizing seems out of place when the dog star is in the ascendant. Hydrophobia is not particularly to be feared, but the most rigorous measures should be taken to prevent any attack of odium theologicum, some evidences of which seem to be floating in the air, but like Sir Boyle Roche we smell them and shall proceed to nip them in the bud. The Massachusetts legislature has postponed the whole subject till Winter and we cannot do better than to follow their example and request our friends to suspend hostilities for the present.—ED. NEWS.]

AN EXPRESS TRAIN.

To the Editor of the Daily News.

SIR.—Many of your readers have observed with pleasure the excellent suggestion in your paper yesterday, that one of the trains to and from Boston should be an express.

Newport is the most delightful Summer resort in the United States, and the facilities for reaching it should be as great as possible. Although the distance from Boston is but seventy miles, the journey at present is so tedious, as to prevent Boston business men from establishing their families here for the Summer.

The pleasures and benefits of a Newport season can now be enjoyed only by those fortunate members of society who have no active business requiring their frequent presence in their own city.

Three years ago there was a fast train that went through in an hour and three quarters. If that could be re-established, it is certain that very many families would come to Newport who now have to go to places nearer home. Two accommodation trains, each way, would seem to be enough, considering the small number of passengers from the way stations. Let us hope the railroad managers will consider this matter favorably.

Yours respectfully, C.

......Judge Poland prints a card in the Boston Advertiser in reply to the criticisms that have been made against the law defining the powers of courts in the District of Columbia. He says that none of its authors ever thought of it as a bridler of the press, and that it was only drawn to cover existing defects in local jurisdiction.

......The Rev. W. H. H. Murray is very busy in a blue flannel shirt and a slouched hat, tilling his farm at Guilford, Ct., building a turnpike along the entire length of his land, training his horses and coloring his meerschaum. He will go to the Adirondacks next month.

The queen presents the medal, or rather "approves" of the person nominated by the institute, and Mr. Ruskin's declinated of this mark of royal favor has completely horrified the loyalty of British society generally.

The classes are to start in rotation, beginning with the first class, and are to be timed by the judges.

THE ART ENTERTAINMENT.

It is hardly possible that our citizens are aware of the remarkably fine entertainment now being given in this city. That some of our people appreciate it is evident from the fact that the audience which assembled Saturday night, though small, was composed of many of the most prominent people here. The exhibitions are enchanting, and we are not using this language simply for a puff, but to impress upon our people the fact that they are having an opportunity to witness a very delightful entertainment, and hope they will not let the opportunity slip by without improving it. Those who have been abroad can testify to the truthfulness with which many of the scenes they saw are reproduced, while those who have not had the opportunity of seeing London, Paris, Rome, or other European places, can get an idea of them which only an actual presence can improve. Besides the reproduction of celebrated groups of statuary is as perfect as the origanls. We understand that efforts are being made to induce Prof. Cromwell to give his representations of Germany and Switzerland, and perhaps repeat Paris, and we feel safe in saying that with sufficient encouragement he will do so. Tonight his best exhibition, "Rome," is given, with reproductions from the famous pieces of the Vatican. Nothing ever given here will tend to cultivate refined tastes as this exhibition, and we urge all our citizens who can to go this evening and take their families.—[Norwich, Conn., Bulletin June 22.

Prof. Cromwell will give six lectures in this city, commencing Monday evening July 6th.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

The treasury department employes were considerably agitated in view of an anticipated reduction of the force. The ladies were particularly disturbed, and collecting in groups in various parts of the building discussed the subject. Tuesday morning the heads of all the bureaus handed Secretary Bristow lists of those to be dismissed. The heaviest discharge was in the bureau of engraving and printing, the services of 375 female employes being dispersed with, leaving 1200 persons still employed in that bureau. The scene of dismissal was marked by sadness. Fourteen of those discharged fainted when the announcement was made to them, and physicians were called to their assistance. Forty clerks were dismissed from the second auditor's office, and other discharges will be made at once. It was recommended by the officers of the bureau that only one of a family be retained, and this recommendation was generally followed. This wholesale discharge will cause much suffering, which, however, will be somewhat alleviated by the payment of two months' salary extra to every victim of congressional economy. About twenty-five permanent and the same number of temporary clerks were discharged from the Interior Department. This includes the contraction of the force in the Patent Office, the appropriation for that bureau having been reduced $20,000. The commissioner has accommodated his business to the circumstances, although he shows that the government will lose largely by the curtailment of expenditures.

At the close of the business Tuesday, the clerks in the Post Office Department and state auditor's office assembled to say "good-bye" to Postmaster-General Cresswell, and presented to him resolutions expressive both of their high esteem for him as a man and of their admiration of his official administration which, they asserted, had not been excelled by the most distinguished of his predecessors. In reply, Mr. Cresswell said that the sight of their familiar faces and this manifestation of esteem excited in him a feeling of sadness at sundering the ties which had bound him and them together during more than five years, but that although he relinquished his position without a single pique or resentment, he left official life voluntarily without any regret. He would never have retired of his own volition as he had done while any imputation against him remained unanswered. But this was no longer the case and he felt that he had effected every reform which he could hope to accomplish by staying in office until the close of the President's term. He could now confidently challenge any banking or railroad corporation to show a proportional amount of business transacted with a proportionally small loss in comparison with the business of the Post Office Department during his administration of its affairs. In conclusion, Mr. Cresswell bade farewell to the bureau officers and clerks individually and expressed a warm desire to meet them all at any time as friends.

Under the provisions of the new currency bill the Third National bank of New York will reduce its circulation from $800,000 to $50,000, the lowest point to which the circulation of any bank can be reduced, and will receive $750,000 in bonds. The American Exchange Bank of New York withdraws $706,000 in bonds for the reduction of its circulation. Letters have also been received from New England banks giving notice of like intention to reduce their circulation and withdraw the bonds deposited for its security. The two proposed Chicago banks, with a capital of $450,000, have declined to go into operation. It will be remembered that the President recommended in his annual message to allow the national banks to reduce their circulation on depositing lawful money and not to require the return of the notes of the bank wishing so to do. He was assured by leading bankers in New York and Boston that were this done the West and South could have all the National banking currency they would need. This was one of the reasons why he opposed expansion of the currency. What was then predicted is now being literally fulfilled. It is no longer an object for banks to secure four dollars in national bank notes with five dollars in legal tenders, as now is the case, while bonds are sixteen and seventeen cents premium, and only $9000 in notes are issued for $10,000 in bonds. The fact that the proposed banks in Chicago do not find it profitable to start under the operations of the new law makes the city for "more money" a false alarm.

CORNS.—Relief in five minutes. DR. CRISPIN, 179 Broad street, Providence, R. I.

The Disease of Civilization.

Dr Warren, author of the "Household Physician," tells us that dyspepsia is a disease of civilization—that savages knew nothing of it. We do not believe the latter statement. Savages sometimes gorge themselves until they can scarcely move; and as they are human beings, and not anacondas, they must necessarily suffer the pangs of indigestion. Undoubtedly, however, in consequence of their luxurious habits, the civilized and enlightened portion of mankind are most subject to dyspepsia. This being the case, what are the civilized and enlightened dyspeptics going to do about it? What a large proportion of them are doing about it now is simply this: they are taking Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy with unvarying and complete success. From all parts of the United States, from all the Spanish republics, from the West Indies, from various parts of Europe, and from the antipodes, Australasia, evidences of its unrivalled properties as a specific for casual and chronic indigestions is continually being received. The result is that the consumption of the great tonic and alterative is rapidly increasing throughout the civilized world. The nations, near and remote, as well as our own people have discovered that as a preventive and remedy for diseases of the digestive organs, and all ailments of the liver, bowels, nerves and general system, which are generated or agravated by imperfect digestion, it has no equal either among officinal or proprietary medicines.

Saturate a Piece of Bread or Meat with gastric juice, and it will dissolve. This is digestion. Add to such a mixture a little alcohol, and it will not dissolve. This is indigestion. Beware, then, of tinctures, or tonics, or decoctions containing spirituous liquors. Shun all rum "tonics," and rely solely on DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, the finest digestive invigorant known, and free from the fiery curse of Alcohol. je1-4w

GENERAL NEWS.

NEW YORK.

The Inquest in New York.—Alleged New Discoveries Concerning Hydrophobia.—A War of Extermination Urged Against Dogs.

NEW YORK, July 1.

The progress of the investigations by the coroner's jury in the McCormick case, throws more light upon the hydrophobia question. According to a report in the Tribune, Dr. William A. Hammond has discovered the long-sought "Lesion" in hydrophobia, which he locates in the Medulla Oblongata. He has also discovered, from a microscopic examination of the organs in the case of McCormick, that hydrophobia is not blood poison, but a disease of the great nerve centres and can be communicated by the bite of a dog whether the dogs has hydrophobia or not. It has also been discovered that the dog which bit McCormick is still alive and has no symptoms of hydrophobia, although he is a vicious brindle bull terrier and is given to biting strangers.

Dr. Cross another of the jurymen is reported as saying that "he believes no legislation can be too stringent upon the dog question." The public danger is truly great. The disease is happily a very rare one, but it must be admitted that cases of true hydrophobia are increasing in this city. In the country upon an isolated farm a dog may be of some usefullness, but in this great city where dogs can be only a nuisance and terror to every one, Dr. Cross believes they should be destroyed. This opinion is shared by Drs. Hamilton, Meredith, Clymer, Hammond and many other distinguished physicians. If such terrible results have followed a dog's bite in one instance only, they say it is ample reason for ridding the city of them all. This ought to be done at once and thoroughly, and until then no one is safe in the public streets.

Gov. Kemper, of Virginia, on the Third Term Question.

Gov. Kemper, of Virginia, publishes in the Richmond papers, this morning, a long letter, giving an account of his visit to President Grant at his office, and declaring himself opposed to a third term, but intimates that he would prefer it and centralization to the "social intermixture of the races, to result from the enforcement of the civil rights fanaticism and barbarism."

A Cruel Hoax.

LOUISVILLE, July 1.

The Courier Journal reporter has visited the scene of the reported murder in Spencer county, and telegraphs that there is no truth whatever in the story which was published in the afternoon papers, as the family said to have been murdered have many relatives in this city. The heartless hoax has caused a great deal of distress.

Disastrous Conflagration in Woonsocket, Rhode Island—The Social Mills entirely Destroyed—The Loss Between $700,000 and $800,000—The Insurance, etc., etc.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 1.

The Social Mills in Woonsocket, running 50,000 spindles and 1000 looms on cotton goods were entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The fire caught at 3 o'clock from friction of the main belt about the middle of the structure, which was 600 feet long and built of stone and brick.

The flames spread rapidly, but the employes, 700 in number, probably all escaped safely. All efforts of the Woonsocket Fire Department, including two steamers, one belonging to the Mills, were unavailing. When too late aid was asked of this city, and the Mayor sent up two steamers, which reached the scene in twenty-seven minutes after starting, but the walls had then fallen in. The steamers, however, will remain all night to render assistance. The adjoining property was all saved.

The loss will probably range from $700,000 to $800,000. The insurance amounts to $630,000. On the mill and machinery, machine and wood shops, Fall River Mutual $30,000; Arkwright Mutual, $15,000, Boston Manufacturers' Mutual, $70,000; Worcester Mutual, $40,000; Blackstone Mutual, $40,000; State Mutual, $45,000; Manufacturers' $15,000; Rhode Island Mutual, $15,000; Firemen's Mutual, $55,000; Mechanics' Mutual, $30,000; Mill Owners' Mutual, $20,000; What Cheer Mutual, $10,000. On mill, machinery, etc.: Queen, $10,000; Fireman's Fund, $7500; Fairfield of Connecticut, $5000; Lorillard, of New York, $2500; Resolute, of New York, $5000; Lenox, $5000; Insurance Company of North America, $10,000; Fire Association, of Philadelphia, $5000; Niagara, $5000; Commercial Union, $7500; Scottish Commercial, $10,000; Star, $5000; Standard, $5000; Guardian, New York, $5000; Home, Ohio, $5000; Meriden, Connecticut, $5000; Germania, $1,000; Atlantic, New York, $5000; Black River, $000; Imperial, $7500. On machine shops, buildings, etc.—Queen, $5000; Williamsburg City, $5000; Lorilard, $5000; Ætna, $5000. E. F. Taylor, top roller coverer, occupied rooms in the mill and lost several thousand dollars; insured for $2000 in the Lancashire, England.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Massachusetts legislature has wisely assigned the question of the taxation of churches to a commission to make a report next Winter.

It is now estimated that not less than 600,000 tons of wheat flour will be shipped from California from the crop of the present year!

The National butter convention, in session at Indianapolis, has brought out the fact that the annual butter product of the United States is about 700,000,000 pounds.

The afternoon train on the Ashuelot Railroad was thrown from the track about a mile below Ashuelot, N. H., Monday afternoon, by a rail and ties being placed across the track on a sharp curve. No one was seriously injured, and the train but slightly wrecked.

Paper flour barrels are being made in Iowa. They are said to be air tight and water proof, to weigh much less than the ordinary wooden barrels, and to be able to stand more rough usage.

The conclusion has been reached by those immediately interested, that a full cargo of grain, loaded two thirds bulk and one third bags, is the safest and altogether the best method of shipping grain to Europe.

The managers of the railroads leading from Chicago through Iowa are discussing the Iowa railroad law, which is similar to that enacted by the Wisconsin legislature. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Chicago and Northwestern and Illinois Central Railroads will be seriously affected by the law. It is certain that the roads will take some joint action. The Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific roads will issue a freight tariff to correspond with the new law, and this line of action the other roads will probably adopt. Under the new passenger law the rates will be three cents per mile. The roads represented at the meeting yesterday failed to agree on a course to be pursued in regard to this feature, but at present the Rock Island Railroad will submit to the law, and the other roads will continue their present rates, except to points where their lines compete with the Rock Island. The latter company are bound by the terms of their extension of time on their Iowa grant to submit to whatever legislation shall regulate freight and fare tariffs. The Attorney General gives it as his opinion that the law can be enforced though very loosely framed.

A terrible disease, character unknown, has broken out in Tlacolatam Mexico, and become an epidemic. The government is assisting the inhabitants, and has adopted measures to prevent the spread of the malady. The state of Guanajuato offers premiums for the production and manufacture of silk and cotton, also for the best specimens of wine and oil produced in the state. No differential dues are hereafter to be imposed on goods imported into the state of Yucatan under a foreign flag.

Two of the five boilers in the extensive saw mill and salt block of Thos. Saylor & Co., at Carrollton, Mich., exploded at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning with terrible force. The following were instantly killed: Joseph Judson, married; Benjamin Chapman married; John Peck and George Watson. The latter leaves a wife and three children. The wounded are: Wm. A. Merritt, a boy of 18, dying; C. Cleveland, scalded and bruised, will recover; F. Walter, arm broken; Coney Davis, ankle sprained.

The Providence Journal says the application of strict party rules to judicial and educational offices in New Hampshire is in marked contrast with the action of the Rhode Island General Assembly, which, with a membership three quarters Republican, has just elected a Democratic lawyer to the office of chief justice of the supreme court making the fourth successive selection from that party to fill positions on the Supreme bench.

Captain General Concha of Cuba has issued a decree requiring that on and after the 1st of July payment of fifty, instead of twenty five, per cent. in gold, as heretofore, of regular taxes and duties. The rate at which paper will be received is to be fixed by government. The decree of June 11th, authorizing the banks to sell gold for payment of land taxes, was revoked. A lighter, with a party of thirty five persons, capsized today, off the village of Cojimar, six miles east of Havana, and sixteen were drowned.

The Illinois Prohibition convention met at Bloomington Tuesday. About seventy-five delegates were present, including twenty women, representing most of the larger towns in the state. D. L. Brown was appointed permanent president, and Rev. D. S. Kent, Secretary. A platform was adopted reciting the terrible evils of intemperance and the enormities of the liquor traffic; declaring in favor of entire prohibition of such traffic, and inasmuch as all existing parties compete for the votes of liquor dealers, favoring the formation of a temperance party, to the support of which all persons whether themselves teetotalers or not, are invited, and commending the women's temperance movement, favoring low salaries and an honest administration of public affairs; favoring the substitution of greenbacks for national bank currency and a return to specie payments as soon as compatible with the safety and interests of the majority of the people. Major John Little was nominated for state treasurer, and Mrs. Jennie F. Willing, Professor of Wesleyan University, Bloomington, as Superintendent of the public instruction. Suplementary resolutions were adopted endorsing the action of the national Prohibition convention in endorsing female suffrage and condemning in unmeasured terms the resolution of the Illinois state Republican convention, in regard to the interference by law with the habits, tastes and customs of individuals, except to suppress licentiousness and to preserve the peace and sobriety of the citizens of the state.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1874.

CLERGYMEN'S SALARIES.—The Christian Intelligencer, on the salaries of ministers, remarks, While he is debarred by duty, by public opinion and by his own conscience from every gainful pursuit outside his profession, and is as absolutely prevented from engaging in efforts for the increase of his income as if a statute made it a criminal offence, he is restricted, in the great majority of instances, to a salary which would be scornfully rejected by men of like abilities in almost any ordinary business calling; and the people who are benefited by his ministrations, to whom he devotes all his time and talents and sympathy, take advantage of the fact that he has no choice of occupations, as men in every other calling have, but must remain permanently in the one profession to which he has consecrated his life.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.—The Cleveland "Voice" says: It is clear to us that we have hit upon the greatest invention of modern times. It consists simply of attaching steam to a hand organ, and placing a wooden Indian or a stuffed effigy, with a cigar box for contributions and a label on its breast announcing "I am blind." This completed start your steam, and you have an apparatus that will thrive in wind or storm, and go on accumulating scrip in all weathers. We are confident that no living organ grinder can compete with our apparatus, and it is with a view to abolishing these public plagues that we studied out our invention.

Why You Should

Insure Your Life!

Because you are not living and working for yourself.
Because it is a sure method of giving help to your family when you are no longer living and working for them.
Because one payment made may bring these benefits to your family; or, neglected the breaking up of the home, and the struggle of the widow and orphans for an existence.
Because it is an economical way of laying out money.
Because small amounts paid by you each year will accumulate into a large sum of money.
Because you are not certain of keeping your health, and if not healthy you cannot be insured.
Because you are not certain to retain your position your salary or your property—therefore insure.
Because a certain number of men of your very age will and must die this very year.
Because, no matter when death comes, you and your family will be taken by surprise.
Because, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred there is no provision absolutely sure for one's dependents except Life Assurance.
Because among so many uncertainties, you will thu have something certain.
Because you have the guarantee of a wealthy and powerful corporation, as well as the guarantee of the great Empire State, that your policy will be paid.
Because if you are sometimes "put to it" now to make a living, what trouble will not your family have when the industry and sagacity of the father is taken from them?
Because your wealthy relatives cannot be depended on for help when you are dead.
Because the best men, the intelligent, the thoughtful, the kind-hearted—insure.
Because, when you are in great peril, or in mortal sickness, you will be glad that your life is insured.
